

NCREHS Exam Overview

The NCREHS exam consists of three components – National Environmental Health Association (NEHA) standardized exam, face-to-face Board interview and handwritten essay. The NEHA portion of the exam is a timed electronic exam administered at a Pearson VUE testing center. The essay and interview portions are administered by the NC State Board of Environmental Health Specialist Examiners (Board) on specific dates throughout the year (see Board Calendar on www.ncrehs.com). The chart below offers additional information regarding the exam components.

Who is Eligible to Take the NCREHS Exam?	NCREHS Interns are eligible to take the NCREHS exam at any time after the Board has approved their initial registration application. They have a maximum of three years from the date of registration approval to pass the exam. (NOTE: Registration date is date Board approves registration application at a Board meeting; it is not the first date of employment.)
